GEORGE H. PENDLETON, Mr. Pendleton's excellent letter to the Hon. John B. Haskin, of the Democratic State Committee of New York, was published, last night, in our telegraphic columns. For this reason, as well as for the signal excellence of the letter, we republish it below, together with a similar letter from Mr.
Pendleton to the Hon. C. L. Ward, of the Democratic State Committee of Pennsylvania.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: I have received your friendly letter. Malignant misrepresentations and falsehoods are so frequent in our political struggles that I have rarely undertaken to correct or refute them.

I make no professions of a new faith, only repeat my reiterated professions of an old one, which I say that there is no one who cherishes a greater regard for the Union, who has a higher sense of its inalienable rights, who would more readily and more cheerfully sacrifice to its maintenance, than I do.

I am in favor of exacting no conditions, including upon no terms, not prescribed in the Constitution, and I am opposed to every course of policy which would tend to the dismemberment of the government upon its old foundations, and in its territorial integrity.

I am, very truly, yours, etc.,
GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

Hon. JOHN B. HASKIN, N. Y.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 18, 1864.

Hon. C. L. Ward, Philadelphia, Pa.

MY DEAR SIR: I have received your letter. The first of the extra session of 1861-2 said in my place in Congress that I would vote for all measures necessary to enable the government to maintain its honor and dignity and prevent discussion to be made, I have done so.

I thought, by the adoption of such measures, the South of the government, was pledged to the rights in the field, and must be forfeited by inadequate prices. I never gave a vote which was incompatible with this sentiment.

All appropriations, pure and simple, for the support and efficiency of the army and navy, I have voted for. I have not voted for any appropriations when, by reason of their popular character, they were likely to be used for the benefit of contractors and speculators, and were not for the benefit of the country.

I have voted for every measure which I thought would tend to the maintenance of the Union, and I have voted for every measure which I thought would tend to the maintenance of the Union.

I have voted for every measure which I
thought would tend to the maintenance of the Union, and I have voted for every measure
which I thought would tend to the maintenance of the Union.
